Activity: listen to Tim reading Susan Eame's story Cold Feet. Tim will tell you when you need to pause the story and answer the questions on the worksheet.

Questioning Koala (who always asks questions), asks this question today:
Can you think of a good reason that the king can tell the queen for why he's not wearing his socks?

I'm a reasoning rodent so this question is definitely one for me!
But I'll need your help. Can you write a reason here?

Questioning Koala now asks:
Do you think the people must take their socks off?

I'm responding racoon and I just want a quick response. Circle one answer:
YES or NO

Can you explain why you answered Yes or No?

Disagreeing Dog barks: Woof woof, I disagree! But Disagreeing Dog can't think why he disagrees! Can you help him? Can you think of a reason why someone might disagree with your answer and think something different?

Someone might disagree with my answer because they think...

Questioning Koala wonders:
Should we always do what people tell us to do?

Can you give me another quick answer?

YES or NO

Can you explain why you answered Yes or

Now it's time for finish the story: <https://bit.ly/2Ll4oaS>

At the end of the story, Questioning Koala asks:
Do you think the king deserves some fruit cake for cancelling his proclamation?

Responding Raccoon and Reasoning Rodent want to know what you think and why you think it. Does the king deserve some fruit cake? Can you explain your answer?
