

The CB Stories: Friends

from Peter Worley's The If Machine

Today we are going to be thinking about 'friendship'. We are going to listen to a story and write down what we think about friendship. Before you listen to the story. Have a think about having a real friend, they can be made up or real!

← Draw what they look like (or on a piece of paper)

What sort of things do they talk to you about?

What sort of things do they do?

Anything else?

CB is a real friend!

CB is just electricity and wires. It's not a real friend!

Questioning Koala (who always asks questions), asks this question today:

What do you think? Is CB a real friend?

I'm responding racoon I just want a quick response. Circle one answer:
YES or NO

Hmmm, interesting... I'm a reasoning rodent so I would like to know why you think CB is a friend or not. Can you explain your idea?

I think....

Disagreeing Dog barks: Woof woof, I disagree! But Disagreeing Dog can't think why he disagrees! Can you help him? Can you think of a reason why someone might disagree with your answer and think something different?

Someone might disagree with your answer because they think...

They disagree because...

The iffing fish asks questions like:

So, if they talk to you, are they your friend?

Write these in the column you think they go into best:

1. talk to you 2. are human 3. are a robot 4. Don't like your friends
5. Are nice to you 4 don't have a brain 5. Can't talk 6. are annoying

A Friend	In the middle	Not a friend

Try to fill the other spaces with your own ideas.

The questioning Koala is back!

Look back at what you said at the beginning. Have you changed your mind?

Questioning racoon (who always asks questions), asks this question today.
What do you think? Is CB a real friend?

I'm responding racoon! Just want a quick response. Circle one answer:

YES or NO

I changed my mind because...

OR

I didn't change my mind because...

Concluding Camel thinks about everything you have said. Quickly re-read everything you have written and try to finish this sentence:

What do you think a friend is?

I think a friend is...
