Dear Parents & Carers,

Ages of Early Man — Year 6 Theatre workshop — Wednesday 26th January 2022

Our context for learning this term is Prehistoric Britain. We will be having an exciting theatre workshop from Freshwater Theatre on Wednesday 26th January. The children will travel back to the days of early man to explore changes in Britain through the Stone, Bronze and Iron Ages. From experiencing life as Hunter Gatherers, to meeting druids, and finally encountering Celtic warriors.

We are asking for a voluntary contribution of £4.40 towards the price of this workshop. If your child qualifies for Pupil Premium, then the voluntary contribution is £2.20. Please log onto ParentPay to make your payment. Please be aware that if we do not collect enough funds, we may not be able to hold the workshop.

We have used the Government guidance to ensure we are holding this event as safely as possible. These will include only hosting one facilitator, maintaining 2 metre distance from the visiting adult, no sharing of props or materials with the children, good ventilation and maintaining bubbles rather than hosting whole year group sessions.

Thank you for your ongoing support and we hope your child enjoys the performance.

Kind regards

Ms Quinn and Mr Rowland
